

Prakash Trivedi, MD

The last few years the world was at a standstill during COVID and shaken up by war, and economic slowdown.

A transformation was essential with intensity of devotion and passion towards Women's Health Care, unexplored means of distant education, skill transfer and out of box thinking to challenge our surgical skills with innovative ideas to correct issues of Excessive Bleeding, Pain, Endometriosis, Fibroids, Cancer, Urinary Incontinence Surgery etc. by working on near non-surgical Minimally Invasive procedures for women's safe future. The AAGL stood the test of time with a vision of rebuilding women's health and enhance confidence of service provider. The AAGL nurtures a silent creative atmosphere, stimulates growth, poise to create opportunities to re dream for bigger and better future.

Associated with the AAGL since 1994 and to date have attended 14 AAGL Annual Congresses, serving in various capacities, educational, PG courses, cadaveric training course, live surgery, intense interaction with world masters. After learning so much from the AAGL I have to work for the AAGL to spread their vision with enlightenment.

Fortunate to be a Scientific Program Chair of the 12th & 18th AAGL International Congress in MIGS in Mumbai, India, June 2016, and June 2023, attended by 1000's in person to enhance skill, knowledge, vision, mission, and goal achieved. Now with unforeseen avenues to digitalization and spread of knowledge to any distance (near live).

Conducted 500 Live surgical workshops and training 1500 consultants adds value for my commitment to spread skill and knowledge.

As a board member of the AAGL, rejuvenated with new energy, foresight, accurate contingency strategies along with experts all over the globe to create tree of opportunities for many endoscopist with quality research documentation, go few miles out of our Professional reach to understand and collectively solve issues with unmatched safety. Newer training modules, fellowship program, centre of excellence and most important to listen to the AAGL Board members, past presidents, global geniuses to make the AAGL rise to the greatest height in any country.

In service to the AAGL, I look forward to being blessed to get an opportunity of my biggest dream to become a reality as a Board Member of the AAGL.
